ORANGE EMPIRE TROLLEY MUSEUM

Perris, California

PCC streamliner No. 3100 is one of many that used to serve Los Angeles and its suburbs. Modern streetcars like this still serve San Francisco, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Boston, Newark, Cleveland, Toronto, and El Paso. No. 3100 was built by St. Louis Car Co. in 1942, retired in early 1963, and is shown here at the Orange Empire Trolley Museum.
